We were the first Midwest IPMS Contest.

The contest for 2021 has ended. So far the feedback has been quite good. If you did not attend, you missed one heck of a good show.

The Boone County Fairgrounds will be our new contest site for 2022.

Thanks to AK International for the presence and presenting demonstrations of their products.

Revell had a table set up as well.

New Business:

The contest went very well overall with quite a bit of positive feedback.

There were 50 volunteer judges from several clubs.

We acquired, signed and sent thank you cards to the Boone County Staff.

Kudo's to Ron Young and Lance Sellers for their work and contributions to a successful contest.

This year there were over 700 contest entries. Next year's contest may be more back to normal regarding the number of contest entries.

Next years contest may be larger in the numbers of patrons attending the contest.

The contest next year will take place April 16, 2022.

The raffle exceeded $1,500.00 in revenues.

Show and Tell:

There was a Show and Tell at this meeting. For some reason, I did not take photographs. My humble apologies are tendered.

However, revert to your youth and let imagination paint the images.

Peter Woodward showed a 1/72 scale Great Wall Brand, F-15 Eagle. Mostly OOB, but he added Remove Before Flight Tags and aftermarket decals. A very nice work.

Steve Bacon showed a 1/72 scale Dragon Panther V. He added Zimmeritt and tracks from the Revell Panther. He showed, as well, a 1/35 Soviet KV2 from Trumpeter, with aftermarket parts and Zimmeritt. It was painted as a German allied Russian Volunteer Force. Purely what if, but nicely done. Steve lastly had a WIP 1/144 scale Me109 G-10. He may finish it soon.

Jim Philhower showed a 5.5CM prototype Flak system from 10.6 Co in 1/35th scale resin kit. He also showed a well done Trumpeter BTR60 in 1/35 scale. It proved a complex build and was finished as an Iraqi vehicle from the 1980's.

Lance Sellers brought in a 1,400's era 54mm Knight figure from Superior Models. The figure was kitted out wearing transitional armor.

Wrap up:

The next Chapter meeting with Show and Tell will be at the Fort Harrison VFW on June 18, 2021, starting at 7:00 PM.
